

LAWRENCE

A. LEBROCQ

Championing Justice in Personal Injury Law

Lawrence A. Lebrocq
Managing Partner
GCL

COVER
STORY

COVER STORY

A distinguished figure in personal injury law, Lawrence A. LeBrocq is renowned for his expertise and dedication to his clients. Certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Civil Trial Attorney, as well as an Arbitrator and Mediator in Personal Injury Law, Mr. LeBrocq brings nearly three decades of experience to his role as Managing Partner of the Personal Injury Department at Garces Grabler & LeBrocq, PC.

Despite his impressive credentials, Mr. LeBrocq remains grounded, having emerged from humble beginnings himself. His personal experiences have instilled in him a deep-seated empathy for those facing adversity, particularly in the face of powerful insurance companies.

At Garces Grabler & LeBrocq, PC, Mr. LeBrocq and his team take pride in championing the rights of the underdog, ensuring that injured clients are not taken advantage of by insurance companies seeking to minimize settlements. With a track record of securing over $100 million in recoveries for his clients, Mr. LeBrocq's commitment to justice and fairness has earned him recognition in prestigious forums and accolades, including being named among the Top 100 Lawyers, Top 25 Motor Vehicle Lawyers, and Top 10 Personal Injury Lawyers in New Jersey.

Mr. LeBrocq's advocacy extends beyond legal victories; it embodies a steadfast belief in leveling the playing field and providing a voice for those who may feel marginalized or overlooked. By standing up to powerful insurance entities and fighting for the rights of his clients, Mr. LeBrocq exemplifies the highest standards of integrity and compassion in the legal profession.

Treating Clients Like Family

With decades of experience in personal injury law, Mr. LeBrocq emphasizes the importance of personalized attention and representation for each client. At Garces Grabler & LeBrocq, PC, every client is treated like family, receiving ongoing support and communication throughout the legal process.

Mr. LeBrocq's strategy revolves around maintaining regular contact with clients to ensure they are informed and supported. This includes monthly updates on the progress of their case and discussions about their recovery from injuries. Additionally, clients have multiple opportunities to meet with lawyers and are in constant communication via phone, email, and text.

By prioritizing frequent and transparent communication, Mr. LeBrocq and his team ensure that clients feel heard, informed, and supported every step of the way. This approach not only fosters trust and confidence but also allows clients to focus on their recovery while knowing that their legal matters are in capable hands.

Philosophy of Setting Fair Case Values

Throughout his career, Mr. LeBrocq has demonstrated fearlessness in taking cases to trial when necessary. At Garces Grabler & LeBrocq, PC, their philosophy revolves around setting a fair value on a case based on the extent of the injuries (damages) and liability factors. If the defendant is unwilling to meet this value, Mr. LeBrocq and his team are prepared to pursue the case in court.

This approach sends a clear message to insurance companies: they understand that Mr. LeBrocq and his firm are committed to maximizing the value of their clients' cases by diligently preparing for trial. When the defense recognizes that the plaintiff's legal team is prepared and capable of taking a case to trial, they are more inclined to settle for the full value rather than risk an unfavorable outcome in court.

By being willing to advocate for their clients in the courtroom, Mr. LeBrocq and his team ensure that their clients receive the compensation they deserve. This unwavering dedication to pursuing justice and securing fair outcomes underscores their reputation as formidable advocates in the field of personal injury law.

Continuing Legal Education Opportunities

Mr. LeBrocq highlights that attorneys at Garces, Grabler & LeBrocq, PC are deeply committed to staying abreast of legal developments and best practices. They are active members of reputable legal organizations such as the New Jersey Association of Justice, which provides updates on changes in the law and offers continuing legal education opportunities.

Additionally, the firm's attorneys are members of national legal organizations like the National Trial Lawyers Association, participating in seminars and receiving updates on industry-leading practices. Mr. LeBrocq himself serves as a member, speaker, and panelist for several national legal organizations, sharing his expertise with colleagues nationwide.

In their representation of clients, Garces, Grabler & LeBrocq, PC, focuses on high-value cases, meticulously vetting opportunities in mass torts like Round Up, 3M, and Camp Lejeune, among others. By concentrating on the most viable types of cases, they ensure that their clients receive top-notch representation and pursue justice effectively and efficiently.

Finding Fulfillment in Work and Colleagues

Mr. LeBrocq places great importance on mentoring less experienced lawyers, recognizing it as a pivotal role in the legal profession. At Garces, Grabler & LeBrocq, PC (GGL), all lawyers adhere to proven policies and procedures that have consistently yielded multimillion-dollar verdicts and settlements. Moreover, the firm is actively involved in philanthropic endeavors within the community.

While many emphasize the importance of work-life balance, Mr. LeBrocq finds fulfillment in his work and the company of his colleagues, making the demanding schedule more manageable. His day typically begins at 5:30 am and extends past midnight, yet he has successfully balanced a thriving legal career with impactful community involvement, particularly through coaching youth sports.

Over the span of 15 years, Mr. LeBrocq coached hundreds of children in baseball, wrestling, and football, imparting invaluable life lessons to the youth of South Edison, the same neighborhood where he grew up. In a community comprised of working-class families, Mr. LeBrocq and his

NO FEE UNLESS GGL WINS

GARCES, GRABLER & LEBROCQ PC

INJURY LAWYERS

GGLlawyers.com

COVER STORY

fellow coaches instilled the values of hard work, perseverance, and resilience. They pushed the children to realize their full potential, demonstrating that success knows no bounds.

Mr. LeBrocq takes immense pride in witnessing the development and success of the children he coached, knowing that he played a significant role in shaping their lives. Through his dedication to both his legal career and community involvement, Mr. LeBrocq embodies the principle that making a positive impact extends beyond the courtroom and into the lives of those he touches.

Balancing Empathy and Objectivity

Mr. LeBrocq underlines the vital role of empathy in legal representation, highlighting the importance of listening to clients and understanding their experiences. He believes that to be an effective trial lawyer, one must possess empathy, passion, determination, knowledge, and skill. Without these qualities, an attorney may struggle to effectively advocate for their client's interests.

Empathy allows lawyers to connect with their clients on a deeper level, understanding their concerns, fears, and aspirations. This emotional connection is essential for effectively conveying the client's story to a jury and advocating for their desired outcome.

In addition to empathy, passion drives lawyers to tirelessly pursue justice on behalf of their clients. This burning desire to succeed, combined with skill as an advocate, forms the foundation of effective legal representation.

By striking a balance between empathizing with their clients' experiences and maintaining objectivity in their legal representation, lawyers like Mr. LeBrocq can provide compassionate and effective advocacy for their clients.

Sharing Insights and Experience

Mr. LeBrocq's journey from considering a career in teaching and coaching to becoming a successful litigator reflects his passion for education and mentorship. Although he initially pursued a different path, Mr. LeBrocq's commitment to teaching and coaching never wavered. Despite turning down a teaching position out of college, he found fulfillment in coaching youth athletics for 15 years. Now, as a seasoned litigator and Managing Partner at Garces Grabler & LeBrocq, PC (GGL), Mr. LeBrocq has embraced the opportunity to educate and mentor lawyers within his firm and across the country. Drawing on his extensive experience and insights, he presents nationally on the attributes of top litigators and shares strategies for growing a successful law firm.

Mr. LeBrocq's background in education and coaching uniquely positions him to impart valuable lessons to aspiring lawyers and seasoned professionals alike. Through his guidance and mentorship, he empowers others to develop the character traits and skills necessary to excel in litigation and build thriving legal practices.

By sharing his knowledge and expertise, Mr. LeBrocq continues to make a meaningful impact on the legal profession, shaping the next generation of top litigators and fostering excellence within the legal community.

